

CLOTHING, &c.

NO. 2. PALMER HOUSE. NO. 2. FASHIONABLE TAILORING.

JAMES & E. A. HALL,

As 2, Palmer House.

BEING convinced that the sale of ready made clothing, in connection with custom work, cannot be carried on successfully, we have determined to confine our business with a determination of devoting them-elves exclusively to furnishing such persons as may favor them with their orders. This determination, they hope, will increase their business, as they know it will enable them to give greater satisfaction to the customers.

Those wishing to get

ESPECIAL WORK, Well Made,

may assure that no off-er will be given to give entire satisfaction.

They perceive themselves that in this they cannot fail, has much as they are well supplied with the

BEST MATERIALS, TRIMMINGS AND WORKMAN.

In the opinion of the quarterly resort of Paris, London, and New York, there is no better tailoring establishment in the city than the one now going on in the fashionable world.

In every instance, where garments do not give satisfaction, either less or more, the subscriber will be at liberty to return, in the transaction of their business, to the following rules, viz: promptness and despatch, small profits, good service and ready-money.

Their large stock of materials, well selected, and convenient for their room, and have filled it with

ALL ENTIRE NEW STOCK.

(from New York,) of the most fashionable goods in discipline and quality, which are now to be had in the city, and are to be had in all parts of the country.

They particularly invite the public to call and examine for themselves.

FOR SALE.—Scott's Reports of Fashions and System of Garment, spatters, scales, crooking and board staves, tape measure &c. &c.

FACTS FOR THE PEOPLE.

Inductive Philosophy.

IT is a fact the character of a man is judged of by his dress and personal appearance.

It is a fact that there is a great difference between a good fitting coat and one that is too small in the back, and one that is too large, too tight, etc., etc., etc.

The subscriber has had twenty years experience in tailoring.
